

CONVENTION EXTRA. The Illustrated Color World. CONVENTION EXTRA.

PRICE ONE CENT. NEW YORK, THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1892. DELEGATES NOT INSTRUCTED TO VOTE FOR MR. HARRISON. PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. NO ORDERS.

Republican Big Four Goes to Minneapolis Uninstructed.

State Convention Failed to Indorse Harrison's Candidacy.

Blaine's Name Set the Delegates Cheering Wildly.

Platform Indorses the Administration, Declares for Sound Money and a High Tariff.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

HARRISON BLERCKER HALL, ALBANY, APRIL 28.—The Republican state convention has completed the business for which it was convened.

The Big Four have been chosen delegates to the Presidential nominating convention at Minneapolis June 7.

They go uninstructed and unpledged to support any candidate.

The convention went wild at every mention of Blaine, and wildly cheered that of Harrison.

Harmony in the proceedings in convention was the distinguishing feature of the day.

The platform, as adopted, reaffirms that of 1888. It congratulates President Harrison on the success with which his administration has carried on the principles enunciated by last platform for protection to industry and industry.

It indorses Secretary Blaine, commends the Republican congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commends the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett in which thundering cheers for Blaine and Harrison were given.

A resolution was adopted requesting Gov. Flower to veto the Election Inspectors bill.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

HARRISON BLERCKER HALL, ALBANY, APRIL 28.—This brave old convention hall is gayly decorated in honor of the great convention, every inch of space in the great building was occupied when Chairman Board-brother's gavel rapped the convention to order at 12:50 p. m.

There were hundreds of ladies in the galleries, and they joined with their efforts in applauding the party favorites as they entered.

Chairman M. DeWey was received with vociferous cheers, given three times thrice. He took and that entered together and took places with their respective delegations, the assembling clapping hands.

The Republican Blaine club, which had handsomely received the delegates and looked after their creature comforts provided carriages for the members of the State committee, which were driven to the convention hall together.

The convention hall had been preceded into the hall by a band and the National club, and the band played till the convention was called to order.

Mr. Isaac Newton Phelps was introduced by Chairman Brookfield and opened the session with prayer.

The roll call of delegates was then ordered. When the roll was called, the delegates came in a body and announced that Warren Miller, one of the delegates from Rochester, had been unexpectedly called away to California, but that he had left a letter, in which he expressed his hearty sympathy with the Republican party, and pledged himself to do all in his power for the candidates of the party, whenever they might be.

The letter was read to the convention by Secretary John S. Kenyon, of the State Committee, who had been selected as temporary secretary of the convention.

AN ORDER TO ASSEMBLE.

At the call of Chairman M. DeWey, the delegates came in a body and announced that Warren Miller, one of the delegates from Rochester, had been unexpectedly called away to California, but that he had left a letter, in which he expressed his hearty sympathy with the Republican party, and pledged himself to do all in his power for the candidates of the party, whenever they might be.

Before he could go further the convention was called to order.

"Hail him!" Fassett yelled the enthusiastic the young warrior from Elmira removed his hat, and bowed low. Men left their seats and gathered around him, and three cheers were given with a will.

When the tumult had subsided Mr. Fassett said: "I call to order."

At the close of the roll call, Chairman Brookfield announced the selection of William L. Sullivan, of Monroe, for temporary president of the convention.

Mr. Sullivan, of Monroe, for temporary president of the convention.

CHAIRMAN'S SPEECH.

Mr. Sullivan, of Monroe, for temporary president of the convention.

Since 1876 New York has been the scene of a struggle between the Democratic and Republican parties.

It is our duty to carry this State the Republican party in Congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commending the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett

and without Presidential election in the State of New York, which is the light of history will be a lesson to the people of the State of New York.

It is our duty to carry this State the Republican party in Congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commending the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett

and without Presidential election in the State of New York, which is the light of history will be a lesson to the people of the State of New York.

It is our duty to carry this State the Republican party in Congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commending the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett

and without Presidential election in the State of New York, which is the light of history will be a lesson to the people of the State of New York.

It is our duty to carry this State the Republican party in Congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commending the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett

and without Presidential election in the State of New York, which is the light of history will be a lesson to the people of the State of New York.

It is our duty to carry this State the Republican party in Congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commending the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett

and without Presidential election in the State of New York, which is the light of history will be a lesson to the people of the State of New York.

It is our duty to carry this State the Republican party in Congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commending the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett

and without Presidential election in the State of New York, which is the light of history will be a lesson to the people of the State of New York.

It is our duty to carry this State the Republican party in Congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commending the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett

Common Danger Makes Queer Friends.

the city, nearly, just of whom now follow his lead in giving his own way.

Willis surrenders.

At last news was made by Mr. Fassett

and without Presidential election in the State of New York, which is the light of history will be a lesson to the people of the State of New York.

It is our duty to carry this State the Republican party in Congress for defeating the Free Silver bill, and commending the Democratic party for removing county clerks, for overruling the verdict of the people in the legislative elections, for granting valuable franchises to political favorites, for invading Central Park, for whitewashing a guilty judge of the court of appeals, for increasing taxes, for the "bores census," by which the rural districts were robbed to benefit the Democratic cities, for the gross mismanagement of the national and assembly districts, for legislation for the benefit of the few and for forgetting its promises to the working people.

It denounces what it calls the degradation of the bench by Judge Maynard, and charges the Democratic party with having stolen the returns from Dutchess County.

Nominations followed the reading of the platform. The Big Four, as previously announced, were named for delegates-at-large to the National Convention at Minneapolis. They are:

THOS. COLLIER PLATT, CHANCEY M. DEWEY, FRANK BLERCKER, WARREN MILLER.

Their alternates are SAMUEL H. McMEILAN, BUFFALO; GEORGE C. BEECH, ROCHESTER; J. E. PARKHURST, BATA; W. S. WOOD, POTS DAM.

For Presidential electors-at-large—H. W. Sage, of Ulster, and Jesse Seligman, of New York, were nominated.

The only candidates for a State officer to be elected next Fall are a Judge of the Court of Appeals. The State Committee was authorized to make that nomination.

Next the Presidential electors to be voted for in November, one for each congressional district, were chosen. They are the same as indicated in another column.

After selecting the new State Committee, the convention, at 2:30, adjourned sine die.

The committee is made up as follows:

First District, Wm. Jones, Jr.; Second District, W. H. Board; Third District, James W. Birkett; Fourth District, Charles M. Swift; Fifth District, William J. Taylor; Sixth District, Robert N. Johnston; Seventh District, Cornelius N. Bingham; Eighth District, L. L. Van Allen; Ninth District, John Collins; Tenth District, John L. Hamilton; Eleventh District, E. C. McMEILAN; Twelfth District, William N. Board; Thirteenth District, William Board; Fourteenth District, Charles J. Barden; Fifteenth District, Henry Cresson; Sixteenth District, James W. Board; Seventeenth District, B. B. Bell; Eighteenth District, John C. Cantine; Nineteenth District, John A. Quackenbush; Twentieth District, William Board; Twenty-first District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-second District, Frederick B. Kilburn; Twenty-third District, Isaac L. Hunt; Twenty-fourth District, Charles W. Board; Twenty-fifth District, George W. Dunn; Twenty-sixth District, Charles B. Brown; Twenty-seventh District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-eighth District, John C. Cantine; Twenty-ninth District, John C. Cantine; Thirtieth District, John C. Cantine.